NYPD SHIELD

“Countering Terrorism
Through Information
Sharing”

About Us...

Operating within the NYPD Counterterrorism Bureau, NYPD Shield is a public private partnership created to establish, maintain, and enhance the valuable relationships between the NYPD and private-security professionals on all matters related to terrorism. The Shield program has come to represent the strength and success that can be achieved through unity and cooperation between our city's and our nation's public and private critical infrastructure sectors.

Shield has served its members since 2005 and provides access to valuable information and department resources for both the public and private sectors alike. While operating under the motto, "Countering terrorism through information sharing", Shield acknowledges that information can flow in both directions. Therefore, Shield also empowers others to assist in the mission against terrorism by addressing emerging conditions within NYC, sharing information and analysis regarding special anniversaries and events, and by acting as a force multiplier by cultivating a more situationally aware community of engaged and encouraged reporters of suspicious activity.

NYPD Shield consists of educated, experienced, and dedicated law enforcement veterans who add their own unique abilities, responder roles, and personal backgrounds to the program. They are determined and eager to strengthen the security mindset and posture of others in an attempt to both prevent the next terrorist attack, and to mitigate as much loss if another attack occurs.

Additionally, this information-sharing model is now being adopted and replicated all over the world, leading to an impressive and cohesive alliance of law enforcement and intelligence-related entities with the same goals and mission of preventing the next terrorist attack. Now global and bigger than any one department, it has become known as the Global Shield Network (GSN).
